Mr. Berthold Tree, the London actor, manager, is the most famous exponent and will that has illumined the London stage for generations. His shafts have long tickled the ribs of his fellow actors and managers, who are always anxious to hear Tree's latest artisticly anxious until they are assured it is not a shot at them. But before the Stratford-Lyon-Avon Players left London for their first American tour, their famous art director, P.
H. Benson, "planted" a story on Sir Berthold that has made the theatrical dressing room rock with joy. The occasion was the farewell dinner given to Mr. Benson by the leading men of theaters and actors in the world's capital, with Sir Sidney Lee presiding and Sir Berthold on the list of distinguished guests. Mr. Benson admitted that the Stratford Players were a bit nervous about the prospect of sailing over the Atlantic in the wake of Christopher Columbus and others, but they would try to show a brave front, and if they could at any time they would put a thicker coat of green paint on their small make sure it is green paint. said Mr. Benson, "and not emerald." Sir Berthold, who I remember on the night of his first appearance in "The Wives of Windsor" several years ago, was a little nervous at the time of the first rising of the curtain drawing. He had ordered in a bit of supper, and stood before the mirror in his dressing room, chewing a stick of cigar and rubbing his cheeks with the bone of a cutter.

The Stratford-Lyon-Avon Players, including Mr. Benson, will be seen at the Atlanta theater February 19, 20 and 21 in "The Merchant of Venice," February 19, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," February 20, "As You Like It," February 21, matinee, and "Hamlet," February 21, night.

"For laughing purposes only," is the way Cohen and Harris announce their production of Charlie Moore's farce, "Don't Think," which is to be seen at the Atlanta theater for three nights beginning Monday, February 23, with a Wednesday matinee.

As a play constructed for the sole purpose of exciting that particularly beneficial exercise it is certainly fulfilling its mission. "Don't Think" will make you laugh in spite of yourself, in unusual situations, and lines fairly bristle with wit and repartee, while the complications thrown around the Rhode Island detective and his endeavors to trap the thieves who are operating in a house hold obsessed with kleptomaniacal tendencies furnish a running thread through the three acts in which the play has been written.

"Don't Think" moves at such a fast pace that its humor might be likened to that of a whirling dervish. It is a refined entertainment that you may view with perfect safety and that you yourself may enjoy to the full without casting aspersions on the direction of your seat mate.
Over one year in New York is the record of this wonderful farce. The same identical cast and production will be presented here.

A bill that is packing them in this week at the Forth, creating a standing room record for every show. It is headed by Blanche Walsh, the distinguished actress. Among the popular numbers are the McBeans, two young Americans who have just returned from an enormously successful European tour, presenting an electrical novelty, Laura Burdick, a clever young woman in "Character Cartoons," Stepp, Goodrich and King, three very entertaining gentlemen on the piano, banjo and singing. Miss Teddy Osborn and her pets, and others.

The Norman Hackett company at the Lyric is offering "Our New Minister," the new to large gatherings. It is a tremendously popular play, all the company, excellent in their parts, and a successful week is anticipated.
Next week's bill will be "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," for which they have been so many requests. Instead will be manifested in the chorus composed of well known local singers.

There are plenty of thrills in "At Cripple Creek," the western melodrama which is being presented this week at the Lyric by Eddie Black and his associates. Thus far the play has had one of the biggest hits of the season, crowded houses being the rule at every performance. "At Cripple Creek" put on in elaborate fashion, with special scenery and effects being used.
Mr. Black is cast for an exceptionally good part, as is Miss Marie Claire, leading woman, and Vernon Wallace, the comic man. Little Robbie Parrott, who plays the part of a girl, is already one of the big favorites with patrons of the Lyric.

DAIRMEN ARE ANXIOUS TO COMPLY WITH LAW

An instance of how anxious a majority of the dairymen in the state are to comply with the pure food laws, the state department of agriculture has received a letter from a Columbus dairymen who has supplied and been a supplier for the past year to the required standard.
The dairymen wrote the department that he had always been desirous to comply with the law but he had not been able to find a man who would keep the fluid in the standard. The writer requested the department to not put him out of business with some one who would conduct his business properly.

British Justice in South Africa

As Miss Claire Sheehan she is known in Atlanta, where her early girlhood was spent and where she was spoken of only as one beautiful woman in a thousand, she is now visiting her old home in South Africa, where she is known as Marguerite Claire.

There she is an opera singer, a pupil of the late Marchesa and a successful habitué of the famous opera houses.
She has canceled all operatic anguishments in England and Australia for the farewell visit home prior to her marriage. Miss Claire does not intend to leave the operatic stage, and may yet visit her own Georgia city in prima donna role.

Clear Brain
and Steady Nerves Necessary

to hit the bull's-eye, whether it's business or sport.

Overload yourself with rich, greasy foods and biliousness and indigestion are sure to follow. General result—upset nerves and damaged health.

It's the part of wisdom nowadays to use food especially selected for nourishment and that can be easily digested.

Try breakfasting for ten days on

Grape-Nuts

and Cream adding some fruit, a soft-boiled egg and a cup of hot Postum.

Grape-Nuts food, made of whole wheat and malted barley, contains all the nutrition of the grains, including the vital phosphates necessary for the balanced up-keep of body, brain and nerves.

Bounding health is worth many times the little care of arranging such a breakfast. Feed skillfully and you can "do things."

CONGRESSMEN LINING UP ON EXEMPTION OF TOLLS

Wilson Promised Support in Move to Repeal Provision in Measure

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—President Wilson pressed forward for repeal of the toll exemption clause of the Panama canal act in conference today with congressmen. He talked with Senator Kern, majority leader, who said afterward that the senate might dispose of arbitration treaties and probably take up the toll question immediately thereafter. He thought it probable the senate would act on the repeal before the house.

Although Mr. Kern voted for the exemption, he said today the president told him of various interlocking phases of the question which were not before the senate when the act was passed. He added he was not prepared to announce his position.

Friends of the administration claim he will be among the administration supporters.

House leaders, it was announced today, desire some announcement message to congress by the president before reversing the toll question so as to be able to make clear to their constituents that international circumstances had arisen requiring a change.

Representative Underwood, it is understood, while still believing in the toll exemption, will not organize any opposition to the president.

REV. FRANK JACKSON TO CONDUCT REVIVAL HERE

gelist Frank Jackson.

the meetings in the tabernacle and will there administer baptism to more than thirty converts.

Rev. Julian S. Rodgers, pastor of the East Atlanta church, invites his vival.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Take this in liquid or tablet form as a tonic and regulator

Mrs. Kate D. Richardson, of Beazley, Essex Co., Va., says, "I esteem it a pleasure to testify to the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For some years I suffered greatly with weakness peculiar to my sex. I was treated by several physicians, but without success. My friends told me of the good results of your 'Favorite Prescription.' I went to the store and got a bottle, and after taking it, with the 'Pleasant Pellets,' I commenced to get better. I now know what happiness was, for I am always light and complaining and made others as well as myself unhappy. So you see what a debt I owe you!"

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate stomach, liver, bowels

YOU'RE BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED, HEADACHY!
MEANS LIVER IS SLUGGISH--DIME

Furred tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—Indigestion, flat gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is filthy and nauseating. A Castor Oil will surely straighten you out. The excellent box will give you head clear, stomach sweet, bowels regular and make you cheerful and bully for months.

Don't forget your children—insides need a good, gentle, castor oil, occasionally.

FRENCH COURTS GRANT DIVORCE TO MACKAYS

Society Given Surprise When Announcement Is Made of Verdict

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—The announcement today that Clarence H. Mackay, financier and president of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company, and Catherine Burr Mackay, his wife, had been granted a mutual divorce by the French courts was not because it was a surprise, but because of the place and manner in which the decree was granted. For many months the couple had been living apart and society's only query was when a suit for divorce would be filed. It was thought that Mrs. Mackay would be the place as Mrs. Mackay had a house and established a residence there, and in the year she left her Maine home for Paris and soon thereafter her husband appeared in the French capital.

Too Tight Corsets Are Blamed for Divorces And Many Other Ills

Corsets, according to Dr. Maude L. Dineen, are the cause of half the divorces of the world, besides being to blame for nearly all the ill that female flesh is heir to. These statements were made by her in a recent lecture tour of Europe. Dr. Dineen, who is one of the foremost women physicians in the United States, does not do away with corsets entirely, but would eliminate careless and pernicious corseting, which results, she says, in most of the physical woes women suffer from.

Some women are always complaining, always frowning, and always telling their neighbors they are fat of the face, she says. "You must take it that their troubles are due to corsets. They are kind of women whose husbands seek the divorce tribunal."

Dr. Dineen says the corset should be three inches less than the waist measure and should be put on while reclining. It is no use talking to a woman about it, she said, if her corset doesn't fit her, she declares.

The ideal measures for the perfect figure, uncorseted, she gives as follows:
Height, 5 ft. 5 in.
Weight, 140 lbs.
Bust measurements, 35 to 40 in.
Waist, 24 to 26 in.
Hip measurements, 35 to 41 in.

WOMAN COULD NOT SIT UP
Now Does Her Own Work.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.
Ireton, Ohio.—"I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedy a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also.
"I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks so healthy that even the doctor speaks of it. You can publish this letter if you like."—Mrs. RENA BOWMAN, 161 S. 10th Street, Ireton, Ohio.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

REBEL GENERAL GIVES PROMISE OF PROTECTION

Villa Tells American General That He Will Protect All Non-Combatants

(By Associated Press.)
JUAAREZ, Mexico, Feb. 18.—General Francisco Villa, the Mexican rebel commander, agreed to the proposition for a neutral zone at Terreon, in a conversation today over the telephone with General Hugh L. Scott.

"I am willing to do anything to protect the non-combatants," said Villa to the American general. "I would be willing to have the battle outside the city if the federals would agree, leaving citizens safe in their homes."

POLICEMAN LINAM ON TRIAL FOR PERJURY
Oldest Patrolman Here in Point of Service Charged With Illegal Land Deal

G. W. Linam, one of the oldest members of the police force in point of service, was placed on trial before Judge Luther E. Bomer, Jr., of the criminal division of the municipal court, on Thursday on a warrant charging him with perjury.

The charge was brought by Attorney Hudson Moore, and grows out of statements made by Linam in certain land litigation.

A number of years ago a loan for $11,000 was placed by Mrs. Laura D. Anderson on certain property in College Park belonging to the policeman's wife. Later a suit for foreclosure of the mortgage was brought by Mrs. Anderson and in his answer to this suit, it is charged by the prosecution that Linam perjured himself.

There are several counts to the charge and one of them is that Linam swore that interest on the loan had been paid up, but when, according to the prosecution, it had not been paid, Linam was defended by Attorney G. L. G. and the indications at 1 o'clock were that the case would last well into the afternoon.

KEEN GIVES BEEFSTEAK DINNER FOR HOTEL MEN
Members of the Atlanta Hotel Men's association are looking forward with genuine pleasure to the beefsteak dinner to be tendered them at 8 o'clock Thursday evening by Manager A. R. Keen, of the Georgian Terrace hotel, following the regular monthly meeting to be held an hour earlier.

Several matters of importance will be discussed at the session and the report of the special legislative committee received. The report will be informal, though enlivened by impromptu toasts. Mr. Keen will act as toastmaster.

RETURNS TO THE DAYLIGHT CORNER
One of Atlanta's most popular men is Mr. Russ Allen. He has been identified with the local retail trade for a number of years. After an absence of several months, he has returned to J. Zimmerman & Sons Co., where he is now again serving his many customers who seek smart men's wear. (Adv.)

NEW JERSEY BOASTS OF REAL POLICEMAN
(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Rutherford boasts of being the only municipality in New Jersey having an all-the-year-round policeman. She is Mrs. Agnes Viola Gotschlich, fifty years old, wealthy and president of the Township Improvement association. Mayor Oscar F. Dune yesterday appointed her a marshal to serve without pay. She will wear a badge and have full police powers.

There were so many complaints of corner loafers insulting women and girls that the mayor decided to appoint a woman police officer to apprehend them.

New, New, NEW,
Suits & Dresses

You can now proceed with certainty in the selection of your spring suits and dresses. The new things are ready; beautifully, bountifully ready.

The splendid variety of suits and dresses that have found their way into the cases of the Ready-To-Wear Section is most impressive.

It reflects the trend of the fashion; it brings to Atlanta women an opportunity that is just as great as they will make it.

Come with us a moment--hundreds of suits from makers who excel, each one here because of its merit, because it stresses some particular point or points that the fashion authorities have stressed. Smart, attractive, STYLISH in as many ways as there are suits.

Is it not the most reasonable supposition in the world that there is a suit here that will prove to be THE suit you want?

We might give the details and tell much of the new fabrics, the crepes, the poplins, the needle failles, the silks, the new length of coats, the new treatment of the bolero, the new cut of the cutaway, the new up-standing collars, the new sleeves that are sometimes set-in, again raglan, again very impressive because they are worked into drop shoulders; we might tell of the frillings, the vesteres, the startling changes in skirts that amount to a modernized style of years ago; we might tell details of all these things and still fall short of the big fact--

We have made this spring showing just as broad and as fine as good taste, given full rein, could make it.

Yours to see what has been done at $15.00, $18.75, $21.75, $25.00 $29.75 and up

The New Dresses Are Charming

It seems that everyone likes the new dresses--they are so entirely new and distinctive. We have had no styles that approached them, no such variety.

There is novelty in the least expensive little woolen dresses--it shows in the flounced, the tiered skirt, in the bodices.

There is novelty in the silk dresses; it may be the fabric--taffeta or crepe--it may be the bouffant effect, the ruffles, the frilled bodices, the big butterfly bows.

There is novelty in the wonderful cotton crepe and ratine dresses. Fact is that it is a novelty that crepes and ratines have taken the place of those fabrics we used to term "lin-gerie."

Fine days these, at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co's., an atmosphere of readiness pervades all.
